

CALL FOR PAPERS

New Challenges for Public Debt in Advanced Economies Strasbourg, 16-17 September 2010

The Banque de France and the Bureau d'Economie Théorique et Appliquée (University of Strasbourg) will jointly organize an international conference on new challenges for public debt in advanced economies. The conference will be held in Strasbourg on 16 and 17 September 2010.

Since the beginning of the crisis, public debt has become a burning issue, an increasing burden that all advanced economies have to face. This conference aims at providing the theoretical and empirical state of the art concerning all dimensions of public debt. Topics could cover the following issues:

- public debt and fiscal sustainability,
- the impact of public debt on financial markets,
- public debt management,
- public debt and fiscal rules/governance,
- lessons from past experiences on public debt dynamics,
- ...

This list is not exhaustive, i.e. the selection committee welcomes all contributions regarding public debt developments and their implications for economic and financial stability.

The conference is open to the academic world, experts from central banks, ministries and economic institutions as well as international economic organizations.

Draft contributions or an abstract of 1500 characters should be addressed before 15 March 2010 in electronic form to: 1371-fipubeta-ut@banque-france.fr.
